

AUTHENTICATION AND ACCESS MANAGEMENT

Credentials are required by DTC Communications to authenticate your access on the DTC Communications website for functions such as online payments. DTC Communications' website has a web service that helps you securely control access to DTC resources. When you obtain a DTC Communications account, you can establish a single sign-in identity that will provide complete access to DTC website functions.